Indian Journal Of Medical Ethics

September 30, 2020.

Dear Editor,

Subject: Submission of article for publication

This is to confirm that the article entitled “Medical Students and Patients: are they comfortable with our clinical examinations?” submitted to the Indian Journal of Medical Ethics is original and has been authored by the undersigned. The article talks about the ethical questions of consent that arise when medical students interact with patients in their teaching hospitals, and suggests some steps that can be taken.

I further declare that I am the sole author of the manuscript, and I am the author for correspondence.

The submission is not under consideration for publication in any other journal.

Details of sponsorship or relevant competing interests, financial or otherwise: None

I have read the terms and conditions of authorship of IJME and I do accept them.

I hope you and the rest of the Editorial Board would find it compelling enough for publication. Please do let me know about any decision you take, and if I should make any change or review it in any way possible. Your comments and constructive criticisms would be very beneficial and welcome to me, as a young author.

Thanking You,

Yours sincerely,
